11 WHEREAS, most residents in the City, including the vast majority of 12 immigrants, are law-abiding citizens and are, when crimes occur, themselves 13 the victims of crime, and because of this the City wishes to foster trust and 14 cooperation between the City, its police department, and its immigrant 15 communities, and wishes to encourage immigrants to report crime and speak 16 to the police without fear of being arrested or reported to the United States 17 Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency; and

18 WHEREAS, current policies regarding immigration enforcement efforts 19 have had a chilling impact on immigrant survivors of domestic violence and 20 sexual assault; and a national study released by the National Alliance to End
21 Sexual Violence (NAESV) and the National Network to End Domestic Violence
22 (NNEDV) in May of 2017 indicates that 78 percent of advocates reported that
